

The Redress Right - Debt Reduction & Credit Acquisition: Room Guide for Conduct and Communication

- 1. Individuals are not to communicate by sharing information with individuals one-on-one anything discussed is as with the group is to be shared with the group. If the parties want to discuss issues between just them another member then they need to do it privately
- 2. No new additions may be made to this group for the indefinite future by anyone, this is subject to change.
- 3. No foul, offensive, critical or insulting language.
- 4. No criticizing another member in any fashion shape or form
- 5. MUST show respect for each and every member within the group at all times.
- 6. Patience must be exhibited as not every member of the group is on the same level.
- 7. If you make a point and/or statement, you must be prepared to support your statement with facts and conclusions of law and or a source of reference for where the information can be obtained.
- 8. Opinions are welcome, however opinions can never be stated as if it were a fact, can never be with the intention to mislead.