

Mark-Thomas: Garrett
9641 Garfield Avenue South, 201743
Bloomington, Minnesota [55420]

U.S. Internal Revenue Service
Office of the Chief Counsel
Michael J. Desmond, Chief Counsel, Et. al.
1111 Constitution Ave, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20224
U.S.P.S. Certified Mail No. 7020 1290 0001 8033 5061

June 16, 2022

RE: Notice CP71C, Tax Years: 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016

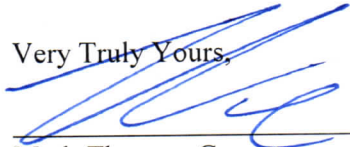

Dear Public Servant/Chief Counsel for the U.S. Internal Revenue Service;

I am in reception of the above unsigned referenced notices of extortion of some Thing as a Tender in Payment for alleged Debts. As Chief Counsel appointed by the President of the United States with the advice and consent of the U.S. Senate, and as the chief legal advisor to the IRS Commissioner on all matters pertaining to the interpretation, administration and enforcement of the Internal Revenue Laws (as well as all other legal matters); the Chief Counsel is to provide legal guidance and interpretive advice to the IRS, Treasury and to Taxpayers. I am also noting your mission to serve America's Taxpayers fairly and with integrity by providing correct and impartial interpretation of the internal revenue laws, along with the highest quality legal advice and representation for the Internal Revenue Service.

Among the seven extortion notices I find an ambiguous sum due on each of them is the reason I am contacting your office as I had done in 2017 and 2018. Your Management tTeam, William M. Paul, Principal Deputy Chief Counsel and Deputy Chief Counsel (Technical), and Drita Tonuzi, Deputy Chief Counsel (Operations), had failed to answer my questions back then, thus, I had assumed this matter was long concluded. I am including a copy of the five letters I had originally sent your Management Team for your review.

Also, I am enclosing copies of the extortion notices to which I have no idea what Thing I am to use as Tender in Payment of these Debts to the State. You are required to inform me what Thing I shall use which is not in violation of the Supreme Law of the Land. Furthermore, You are required to advise your staff that this matter is accepted as settled in full, as it is an impossibility of law to Tender in Payment in any Thing to the State, in direct violation of the Supreme Law of the Land, including in violation of my inherent right to due process of the law to assume I do.

Very Truly Yours,

---

Mark-Thomas: Garrett,
Ambassador in Christ, for:
Minnesota State Registered Entity
MARK THOMAS GARRETT
(651) 503-5768

Cc:
IRS Commissioner, Charles P. Rettig;
U.S. Attorney General, Merrick B. Garland;
Department of Treasury, I.R.S.,
P.O. Box 621503
Atlanta GA 33062-1503.

