Dear Mr. Buhman:

This letter is to notify you that we have received your correspondence dated September 5, 2000 in reference to the statutory notice of deficiency issued to you on September 5, 2000 and have associated it with your administrative case file. The information you sent us does not change the amount of the deficiency shown on your statutory notice of deficiency.

You are advised that there is no provision in law for the suspension of or extending of the (90-day or 150-day) period provided for the filing of a petition in United States Tax Court. You are further advised that if you file a petition, it must be filed with the United States Tax Court in Washington, D.C., within (90 or 150) days from the original mailing date of the notice of deficiency. Such (90 or 150) day period will expire on January 13, 2001. The United States Tax Court has no jurisdiction over a case where the taxpayer files a petition after the 90th/150th day or, if later, the date shown on the notice as the last day to file the petition.

Please associate this letter with the statutory notice of deficiency issued to you on September 15, 2000.

Sincerely,
