Dear Mr. Jackson,

I have been contacted by John Henry Smith, attorney-in-fact for BARNEY F. RUBBLE, from outside the United States for the purpose of presenting a claim under notary seal.

I have been asked to mention that:

- i) the Commercial Affidavit is the principal's claim and response to your defective response, dated September 25, 2008, regarding payment tendered by principal on or about September 8, 2008;
- ii) you may rebut the statements and claims in the Commercial Affidavit by executing a verified response point-by-point with evidence that is certified to be true, correct and complete, to be received by the principal no later than ten (10) days from this postmark;
- iii) your failure to respond to the Commercial Affidavit conveys your agreement with all of the statements and facts set forth within the Commercial Affidavit;
- iv) your response to the Commercial Affidavit is to be received through me no later than ten (10) days from this postmark to prevent issuance of a certificate verifying your non-response or default pursuant to my statutory authority; and
- v) your response to the Request Regarding a Statement of Account is to be received through me no later than fourteen (14) days from this postmark to prevent issuance of a certificate verifying your non-response or default pursuant to my statutory authority.

That observation in facilitation of international commerce should not be deemed a power of attorney or the practice of law. I'm just a duty-bound messenger.

Thank you for your assistance. All communication should be delivered through me at the above address by Registered or Certified Mail to ensure delivery and appropriate certification. Service in any other manner will be defective on its face.

WITNESS my hand and official seal.
