Claim of Right for Americans

We all use artificial entities everyday. Our all caps name registered with the government. All law, and I mean, ALL LAW, applies to this name only, not us. We are all free and don’t know it. We are the voluntary surety for this name only.

Writing up a claim of right for Americans who want some ideas on how to extricate themselves from the deception of the commercial federal United States government (a corporation) and the State governments that have contracted with this federal legal entity. These legal entities are governed by the federal registry and US Code (commercial code based on the Napoleonic Civil Code), which itself is governed by the Uniform Commercial Code. The New World Order uses commerce (communism) to control us and tax us via a legal entity it creates when we register our name with government. This name become 'identification'. This identification is, in fact, not us. It's a legal entity to which all government law applies.

Since governments are non-living entities and can't have authority over a living being, they have to go through an interface, the 'identity'. We have volunteered into commercial law acting a non-living legal entity, the fourteenth amendment 'citizen of the United States' through social security, voting registration, driver's licenses, and resident status. We, as living beings, are not 'citizens', 'residents', 'persons', nor 'taxpayers' - only our non-living identification as a legal entity is. The fourteenth amendment grants only privileges to 'citizens', not rights. If we claim to be 'citizens', 'residents' or 'persons' then we have lowered our political status as is recognized by governments. Then we are, in effect, claiming not to have rights, unless we then actively claim them from that position..

One way to be free is simply agree not to be surety for any debt, or criminal or civil charge. 'I do not consent to be surety for the debt or charge on that artificial entity'.

Another way to claim our rights is to bind public officials to the Bill of Rights of the Constitution and claim the political status of 'the people', an article IX entity of the Bill of Rights.

Another way is to set things up ahead of time by establishing material facts as our private law about who we are as living beings, and the nature of the non-living de facto federal and state governments.

There are a few ways to establish private law which can be the exonerating facts in any government case imposed upon the legal name that we once thought was ours, and through which we used to think we have no choice but to act. One way that seems to be working for a lot of people is through establishing by tacit admission (non-response and admission thereby) of those in control of the government, for certain claims we are making about our freedom, or admissions of truth that we make about ourselves as living entities, or with questions that we ask to them about the nature of the de facto corporate governments.

There are also several methods by which one can establish tacit admission of facts. They all involve non-response by government officials to the questions, claims or charges that you make of them. One of them is to send a claim of right to the men and women (in their private capacity) doing business as the public officials in government, the men and which are supposed to be under Oath of Office and acting in their private capacity to protect our rights (ie, Mayors, Governors, Senators, President, etc) using a notary process similar to Jack and Margy Flynn. By doing this we are both bypassing the corporate entity name that we use in commerce, and also bypassing the corporate non-living entities in which they are unlawfully acting as de facto members of the United States, talking to them directly man to man, as those people who are supposed to be under oath to the Constitution.

I'm still working on this... please comment if you notice conceptual errors. I would like to have a consensus of people on whether or not we should be referring to ourselves as Sovereign State Citizens, or as Sovereign Free Men-on-the-land (the fact that we are not de facto citizens -small c- is not in dispute).

Be sure to claim that the men and woman acting as public officials are to uphold the Bill of Rights, and that you are of the political status of 'the people'. 'the people' are the political status that is free. Listen to Eric WhoRU on WTPRN.com for more information on political status of 'people' vs 'citizen'.

This is very powerful stuff. Many people are having great success with using ideas like this. This is all brand new stuff for me so please visit thinkfree.ca forums for more details and discussion and watch the videos by Robert-Arthur:Menard, Irene Gravenhorst, and Winston Shrout in my Must See Freedom Videos post.

Notice of Understanding and Intent and Claim of Right

Whereas it is my understanding that:

the common law is that which derives its force and authority from the universal consent and immemorial practice of the people.

that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are the right to Life, Freedom and the right to sole ownership of both property and land, and;

equality before, not under, the law is paramount and mandatory, and;
Thomas Jefferson said: A free people [claim] their rights as derived from the laws of nature, and not as the gift of their chief magistrate.' --Thomas Jefferson: Rights of British America, 1774. ME 1:209, Papers 1:134

That 'every man is independent of all laws except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institution formed by his fellow men without his consent.' Cruden v Neale 2 NC.338(1796) 2 S.E. 70 no law of man can ever govern the conduct of people on the land, only those who work in a capacity of government officials and agents and employees in their lawful duty to protect the life, liberty and property, and;

the lawful functions of any government cannot infringe upon the freedom granted to men and women on the land by their creator, and;

A society is defined as a number of persons joined by mutual consent to deliberate, determine and act for a common goal, and;

A statute is defined as a legislated rule of society which has been given the force of law only within that society, and:

A by-law is defined as a rule of a corporation, and; the United States of America is a federation of fifty artificial nation states, the government of each state bound by the Constitution for The United States of America, and;

The Constitution for The United States of America, and the public acts of all states and the federal government, established corporate legal entities called governments on the land known as the United States and the several States, and;

The Constitution of The United States of America is a document to which all public acts must abide, and;

the current acting federal government on the land commonly known of as the United States of America is a power de facto, is referred to as the United States, and has no authority over men and women on the land, and;

The United States is a corporation as per public policy 29 USC 3002.

corporations are artificial legal entities that can contract only with other legal entities by the hand of living agents, and only with full disclosure between the agents thereof, full disclosure of the definition of all words, the assumption that those definitions rest upon, and the implications that extend therefrom of all clauses of such contracts in order to claim authority, power or control over those contracting parties, and;
The Constitutions and public acts for The United States of America and the respective States do not bind nor extend to people on the land, only to natural and artificial persons, and;

the Law Societies and Bar Associations of the United States and the respective states are the societies whose members create the statutes of the United States, therefore these statutes apply only to citizens of those societies, the artificial persons who are subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, or those artificial persons whose trustee acts in his personal capacity as an employee of those societies, and;

The Constitution of The United States of America and it's public acts, the Constitutions and public acts of each of the respective states, and all de facto counterparts, apply only to citizens, residents, persons and the like - artificial persons representing the government officials, agents and employees of each level of governments, and;

a 'person' 'resident' or 'citizen' of the Constitution of the United States of America and the Bill of Rights and all statutes, code, ordinances and by-laws of the United States and of all States and Municipalities refers to artificial political entities, and;

all law of the United States and respective States applies only to artificial persons, and those sworn to uphold these laws, and;

The United States and all governments and courts on the land commonly known of as United States of America are corporations, and have no authority over sovereign men and women on the land, and;

The US Code and State Codes, are commercial law governed by the Uniform Commercial Code, and;

for something to be subject to the jurisdiction of the United States it must be an artificial person subject to the jurisdiction pursuant to the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of The United States of America, and;

that the term 'citizen' as defined in the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America is the term used to denote the political status of the artificial entity of government employee or officer, and;

A citizen is an artificial person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States as per the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution for the United States, and is also subject to those corporate state entities which have contracted with the United States, and;

that one unknowingly acting as the legal entity of a citizen under the fourteenth amendment is interpreted by those running the United States as not enjoying the full extent of freedom God allows, even though full disclosure of this legal status has not been established, and;

there is no such thing as a contract, or social contract, without the universal agreement of parties thereto over time, and;

people may only act as the priniciple of any contract, or the surety for issues involving artificial persons with their continual agreement and consent over time, and;

one who does not consent to act as surety for an artificial entity may choose not to, and that there can be no lawful consequence for not doing so, and;

living beings who act as surety for an artificial entity subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and in that capacity may not be exerting his sovereign freedom and rights, has the freedom and private right to do so and may choose to do so at any time, and;

the terms 'community' and 'community standards' are deceptive and used to impose unlawful legal control and conformity upon the people on the land and the land itself, and;

a name is that which is designated to property by the owner thereof, and;

someone's given and family names under their creator are not the same as the first and last names written on any commercial instrument or court document which may resemble one's God given name, and;

when someone is born they do not have first hand knowledge of who they are, what they are or where they are, nor do they have first hand knowledge of who their parents are, nor could they pick them out of a line up of two - therefore any knowledge of who our parents are or what the people we commonly know of as our parents have told us regarding our supposed time and date of birth in a de facto court of law for purposes of 'identification' is hearsay, and offering such information would be entering into fraud, and;

that those in control of the government de facto of the United States of America deceptively entice others, through application for citizenship or residency, limited liability, and use of a social insurance number, to act in commerce in a capacity of an artificial entity created and controlled by the United States, and therefore as de facto government employees/citizens, and refer to them and tax them through commerce as their chattel property, and;

one may apply, register, and/or submit to the United States for creation and use of a artificial entity, a legal name similar to the lawful name of the one who applies, but only the legal name created, being legally 'owned' by the United States, is subject to the jurisdiction of the United States under the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and;

the name and date of birth on a birth certificate are merely proof of the facts so certified thereon in any court in the United States, or any of the States, can only be used by those acting as artificial entities in a de facto manner (in fraud), have no relation to any sovereign man or woman, and cannot lawfully used for purposes of 'identification', and;

no information stemming from a birth certificate, nor information stemming from second hand knowledge of one's birth can lawfully be used to in a court of law, and use of such by the courts is in fraud, and;

using a Social Security Number is prima fascia evidence of acting in the capacity of a citizen or artificial person, government employee or officer, and;

those who use a Social Security Number (SSN) are acting through a legal name as officers or employees of the de facto federal government, only the legal person to which they are trustee bound by the de facto statutes and bylaws created by the Federal government, or by legal contractual extension, the de facto State and Municipal governments, and;

those who are in control of the government of the United States of America consider men and women as instruments of production, and lure men, women and children into acting as legal entities for the purposes of taxation and control, and;

that the income tax is an excise tax derived from what those in control of the legal entity the United States consider as for use of their legal property, for the 'privilege' of using 'benefits' offered by this de facto government, and;

that courts and tribunals of federal jurisdiction and those courts of the fifty states that have contracted with the de facto United States cannot be of lawful authority without the full consent of all parties involved in a case, and;

the courts of the United States and States conduct the profitable business of witnessing and facilitating transactions of security interests, and;

the current courts in the United States and in the several states are corporations, and operate on a system of double entry accrual bookkeeping, which is unlawful, and;

use of the current court system of the United States and States and Municipalities is a benefit in fact, and;

that any transaction of a security interest requires the consent of both parties prior to providing any such services, and;
statutory or by-laws stating that persons must identify themselves refer only to non-living legal entities themselves, and do not extend to men women or children who may use a legal entity name of the United States, and;

there is no lawful obligation for anyone to ever 'identify' themselves, and;

peace officers are under United Nations contract, and;

the term 'police officer' means a corporate policy enforcer, and;

police officers who ask for identification are not acting under their oath of office and therefore are not acting lawfully, and;

'eminence domain' only involves legal title to property, not lawful claim, and.

that the Federal Reserve is a private corporation, and that the lawful money of the United States of America has been replaced with private legal tender and credit, the use thereof by those acting through their legal entities are considered as taxable events by the de facto corporate government of the United States, and;

a crime is that which is committed by a government official, agent or employee against the lawfully protected interests of the people on the land, and;

breaching of the peace is the breaching of de facto code, statute, or by-law, by an artificial entity, and;

a free man or woman on the land cannot breach the peace nor break the law of any corporation or government on the land, and;

that as a sovereign Free Man-on-the-land I cannot commit a crime nor break a law of the United States, nor breach a statute or code, and;

breaking the law, as committed by a sovereign Free Man-on-the-Land, is not equivalent to a crime as committed by someone acting in the name of government or under the de facto government, nor to the breaching of a statute or by-law by which government officials, agents and employees are governed, and;

de facto courts often try to deflect the fact that they have no evidence of the existence of an injured or complaining party and therefore no probable cause for a case, by arguing that a peace officer had 'reasonable belief' or 'probable cause to believe' a crime was committed, or that an accused's defense is hearsay, when in fact it's the officer's complaint itself which is based on hearsay and there is no evidence of an unlawful event, or existence of an injured or complaining party, and;

anyone who has already applied and registered for, and use, any artificial legal entity of any government including the United States, has not had their God-given freedom and the rights as a sovereign infringed, even though the civil, natural and political rights of the artificial person/citizen created are not equivalent to God-given freedom and the rights of the man or woman who has applied, and;

I may claim damages and bill those people acting as lawful or legal entities of any government or acting de facto government infringes on the freedom granted to me by my creator as a living sovereign man on the land, and;

that any action for which one can apply for and receive a license must itself be a fundamentally lawful action and does not need a licence, and;

that anything for which one can apply for insurance must lawfully be something for which one can own and use under full liability and is not obliged to have limited liability insurance for, and;

that automobiles for which one can apply for and receive a license and/or registration to own and use on the land must fundamentally be lawful to own and use on the land, including what de facto governments term 'public land or highways', therefore does not need a licence and/or registration, and;

that it is perfectly lawful to own land of any of the several States by alodial title or land patent or Claim of Right, and this not depend on, nor can be supplanted by any concurrently registered legal title of the land with any de facto local, state or federal government, and;

because no lawful money of the Constitution of the United States of America is in circulation does not mean that we cannot use federal reserve notes to buy and lawfully own land of what is commonly known of the United States of America or any of the States thereof, and;

that remedy from unbonded de facto statutes and by-laws must, in the imperative, exist for those who have unknowingly been enticed to act as legal persons - as employees of the de facto governments on the land mass known as the United States of America, so as that those who operate, and operate in obedience to, the de facto government, do not force people into involuntary servitude and;

that, acting as a unbonded de facto government employee citizen, remedy exists because, as de facto statutory law is always speaking, and as the definition of the words 'shall' and 'must' are yet to be construed in the imperative sense, this means that the words 'shall' and 'must' have not currently been defined in statutory law, therefore, one acting in the capacity of an artificial entity may deny consent to be governed through it, and;

someone unknowingly acting as a legal entity can, upon learning he is acting as a legal entity, can simply deny consent to be surety for criminal or civil charges on that legal entity, or act or perform as a legal entity, unless one is a public official, agent or employee under oath to uphold the Constitution for the United States of America and it’s laws, or acting in a de facto capacity as a public official, agent or employee of the United States and subject to uphold the laws of the United States, and;

all those who work for government agencies, courts and police, whether acting knowingly or not as a legal entity, must be bonded and under oath to uphold the Constitution of The United States of America so as to protect and indemnify those they serve, lest he or she be subject to criminal charges or commercial processes and;

to lawfully hold office, government officials must be bonded and under oath to uphold their respective State Constitution, Constitution for the United States of America, and also the State statute and code and federal statute and code that applies to their office, and are always subject to these laws, and cannot lawfully evade prosecution or commercial processes for not upholding these laws, and;

Writs of Indictment or verified criminal complaints can be presented by a sovereign Free Man-on-the-land before a properly convened Grand Juries and courts de jure to indict those members of corporations and de facto governments who infringe upon the God-given rights of the people, and;

it is perfectly lawful for anyone on the land commonly known of as the United States of America to not be known as, or do business as an artificial entity, and to abandon one's legal name and SSN altogether and act solely as a Free Man-on-the-land of what is commonly known of as the United States of America, and;

people on the land commonly known as the United States of America have the God given freedom to revoke or deny consent to be known as a citizen or Citizen, and thus to be governed through the legal name to which they can act as trustee, and;

if anyone does revoke or deny consent to be governed as an artificial legal entity/government employee, they are clarifying their status which is eternally true - to lawfully exist free of all government control and statutory and commercial code restraint that exists and acts upon the legal name fraudulently misrepresenting the God-given name of people on the land, and;

a common law claim of right in one's God-given name, claiming and clarifying that which is eternally true - that of the God-given freedom and right to exist free of involuntary servitude, by claiming the eternal truth of ownership and possession of one's body, land, and property over, above, and separate from, the de facto legal title that denotes chattel property - establishes lawful excuse, and;

one with lawful excuse may choose to not obey a statute, Act, regulation, court, tribunal, order, warrant, summons, or the like, that are created and used by those in, or who represent, the de facto possession of sovereign power, and;

a Free Man-on-the-Land has lawfully claimed to be free from governance, and to be free from governance as, or through, an artificial entity, and exists free of all statutory or codified restrictions, obligations, and limitations, and;

traveling freely, and/or running private non-commercial business, by any means, on the land, roads, highways and seas is a God-given right that cannot be forcibly regulated or taxed by commerce, and;

giving lawful notice, someone from another country may live on the land commonly known of as the United States of America, and may not be detained or restrained against his liberty, or deprived of this life or property, by those acting for government, and; the people on the land and notaries are senior to any judge of the United States of America and it's respective States, and;

Therefore be it resolved and known to any and all concerned and effected parties, that I, Lake-Shore:Baby, a Free Man-on-the-Land do hereby state clearly, specifically and unequivocally my intent:

• to claim that my body and all property in my possession is my own and cannot be used by others without my consent, and;

• to do anything I so wish without interference from any government, agency, court or police operating on the land commonly known of as the United States of America, and;

• to act and be recognized by all governments courts and public officials and officers operating on, over and above the land commonly known of as the United States of America forevermore with full God-given freedom and the rights which stem therefrom, and;

• To lawfully exist free of all statutory and commercial obligations and restrictions, and maintain all rights at law to trade, exchange or barter;

• to lawfully buy, own, possess, use and sell anything without interference from any government, agency, court or police of the United States or the States, and;

• To travel lawfully on the land commonly known as the United States of America by whatever means I deem necessary without interference from de facto governments, courts or police, or any other entity thereby contracted to any government or court acting on the land, and;

Therefore, to communicate clearly to the de facto governments on the land of the United States of America, I claim from my authority as a living man on the land, granted to me by my creator, undisturbed by de facto statutory law and the law of persons, the following unalienable freedoms and rights:

• this is lawful notice that I have a bilateral binding contract with all men and women acting as public officials and agents of the United States and all States, and all corporations they underwrite, involving the Constitution of the United States of America, including but not limited to the Bill of Rights and what is commonly known of as the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States of America.

• that I am Lake-Shore:Baby, a living sovereign Free Man-on-the-Land, my given and family names as granted to me by the creator of all living things, acting under his authority and power alone, and;

• that I am of not of any political class or jurisdiction of the Constitution for the United States of America, but am of equal or greater political status of any entity defined therein, and;

• that I claim and reserve all freedoms and rights as granted to me by my creator.

• as a soul in the knowledge of God and not the chattel property of anyone nor anything, the ownership and the right to soul possession of my body, and enjoyment of it in any way I see fit, free from any interference from corporations and de facto governments, agencies, courts and police, and any entity, person, man or woman that acts on their behalf and;

• as I am not chattel property, nor a child, citizen, person, resident, taxpayer, employee of, or residing with, any government, nor any other word that denotes an entity with diminished freedom and/or rights, and;

• that the above claims generate lawful excuse to disobey any law of the United States or the respective States and Municipalities, and;

• that peace officers, and all other men, women and entities, have a duty to act under their Constitutional oath of office and distinguish between statutes created by the de facto government, and law, and those who attempt to enforce statutes against a Free Man-on-the-Land are in fact breaking the law and;

• the right to generate further lawful excuse, which includes all of the defenses which God and the common law considers sufficient reason to excuse a man from criminal liability as administered by de facto governments, courts and police;

• the authority to use the full extent of the sovereign power, any writs from the common law, and any commercial procedures, to defend myself and the liberty of my body and private property, or to enforce consequences on those who commit treason and obstruction of justice in their actions to block me in my pursuit of freedom, remedy and recourse;

• all men and women acting as public officials and agents of the United States and State governments and the corporations they underwrite are bound to understand my intent to claim, and my claim to exist free of all statutory, and codified laws, rules and regulations of the United States and the States, despite how this document is worded.

• for the purposes of this claim, all men and women acting as public officials and agents of the United States and States are bound by the Constitution for the United States of America including but not limited to the Bill of Rights and what is commonly known of as the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.
