American Governance

Both systems concurrently exist today. However, the corporate system has been gaining predominance in the last 70 years. Many Sovereigns (We the people) have contracted with the corporate system unknowingly, unintentionally, and or without full disclosure.

Which one do You want for Yourself, Your family, and Your posterity?

Once you learn the difference, You may have to make a decision for Yourself, Your family, and Your posterity. That decision will require changes in how you conduct yourself. You will have to undo what has been done to make your Sovereign status known. This is not taught in the corporate government's public school system, because you are not to know.

The "One World government" system wants and needs to have power and control over the population (masses) they call "Human Resources."

Introduction

Philadelphia is the Capitol

The Articles of Confederation were agreed to by the United States in Congress assembled on November 15, 1777 and were ratified March 1, 1781. From the time of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, to the time of the Articles of Confederation there was a space of time of sixteen months and eleven days. During this period of time, the several nations, states, countries were sovereign unto themselves as relates to foreign earthly powers.

There was an outstanding debt of 17 million silver Lira from French banks over 21 separate occasions all due on December 1, 1789.

Therefore, a Constitution had to be drafted as a bankruptcy Charter.

"Articles" establish a sovereign nation but all "Constitutions" are bankruptcy charters or compacts.

President Andrew Jackson paid the debt in the 1830's. In 1832, while discussing the Bank Renewal Bill to a delegation of bankers, he said, "You are a den of vipers and thieves. I intend to rout you out, and by the Eternal God, I will rout you out."

The Articles of Confederation are (may) still be in operation.

Certain members of Congress created the District of Columbia from portions of two states; Virginia (Virgin) and Maryland (Mary). Physically united together they are "Virgin Mary," to form a more perfect union as a new "United States".

All Rule comes from "District of Columbia" which is run by the Gnostic Priesthood of the undisclosed mystery Babylon.

"Masonic Rule"

Some of the Masonic symbolism is found in the layout of the District's streets, the Washington monument (Obelisk), the Pentagon, and on the back of the One Dollar Federal Reserve Note.

"Columbia" is a name for "Goddess of Creation, War, and Destruction" more known as the goddess of death and pain. She is a statue on top of the Capitol building called the Statue of Freedom which is crowned with...
"He [Patrick Henry] boycotted the Constitutional Convention of 1787 because, as he so eloquently put it, "I smell a rat" and suspected the worst: that the independent colonies that had thrived for over a century were to be herded under one consolidated government, a vast government apparatus founded not on liberty, but on the bureaucratic dreams of monarchists and mercantilists like Alexander Hamilton."
--Ryan McMaken, columnist for LewRockwell.com

...We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. - That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government... --Declaration of Independence

Samuel Adams said, 'When the people fear the government they have tyranny, when the government fears the people they have freedom.'

Many governments are established by good people having good intentions. But, certain men with bad intentions or another agenda get into government by some means, lawful or unlawful. office by some means, lawful or otherwise, find loopholes, revise government and its laws to suit their needs and agenda, and build an empire within government itself. Through deceit and lies and through the absence of truth, gain power and control over the people, extracting the people's well earned money from the people's labor to finance and increase the empire to such an extent that it would seem difficult for people to rise up against it.

"I pledge allegiance to The United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, One nation under God"

Emphasizes "Democracy" which is the next thing to "Socialism" which is another form of "Communism".

Did you say Communism? Can't happen here? Check this out!

Communist Manifesto

"Democracy" (means "Priest rule")

"A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves generous gifts from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policy, always followed by a dictatorship.

The average age of the world's greatest civilizations from the beginning of history, has been about 200 years. During those 200 years, these nations always progressed through the following sequence: from bondage to spiritual faith; from spiritual faith to great courage; from liberty to abundance; from abundance to selfishness; from selfishness to complacency; from complacency to apathy; from apathy to dependency; from dependency back again to bondage."

--Attributed to Scottish History Professor at University of Edinburgh Sir Alexander Fraser Tytler (1747-1813) and others

"Apathetic and dependant Americans today are unsuspectingly going into bondage unless America wakes up."--Jack Slevkoff 2006

"Republican" (means "common rights") form of government

"Government of the people and by the people"

A republic is a self governing forum wherein a free, sovereign, moral, and enlightened people guarantee to one another and to all minorities the right and obligation to have, retain, and protect each other's God given common Rights to Life, Freedom, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness in their separate capacities as free inhabitants and or as free Sovereign people within a nation, state (nation state), and or a country, all by positively accepting the Oaths as recipients of the oaths of their servants holding public office.

The people created a republican form of government with limitations on their servants.
The people are the government, not their servants.

"...shall guarantee to every state in this union a republican form of government"
--Constitution, Art. IV Sec 4

At the close of the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia on September 18, 1787, a Mrs Powel anxiously awaited the results, and as Benjamin Franklin emerged, asked him directly: "Well, Doctor, what have we got, a republic or a monarchy?" "A republic if you can keep it" responded Franklin.

James Madison, the fourth president, known as "The Father of Our Constitution" made the following statement:
"We have staked the whole of all our political institutions upon the capacity of mankind for self-government, upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God."

"...often the most tyrannical government on earth."
--Noah Webster

Democracy can be explained as "two wolves and a lamb, voting on what to have for dinner" or "A political system calculated to make an intelligent minority subject to the will of the stupid." --Friedrich Nietzsche (1844 - 1900)

A "Mob Rule" form of government giving the impression of representation and rule by it's citizens.
But, today, if you follow the paper trail it is:
The "Crown" is the king's corporation, setup to do the king's business and protect the king from liability.

Those in power behind the scenes dress up their candidates for office, help them get elected, and then control them while in office.
Supposedly giving you a choice when both major Political parties and other parties are controlled by them.
Their controlled major media is used to control and direct public opinion.
So, you wonder who is really in control--It's definitely not the people.

"Republican government" is defined as one in which the powers of sovereignty are vested in the people and are exercised by the people, either directly, or through representatives.

"Democracy" is defined as that form of government in which the sovereign power resides in and is exercised by the whole body of representatives chosen by the people, to whom those powers are specifically delegated.

The central government is limited in power and ability and its venue is restricted by the Constitution to the 10 miles square district now called "Washington, D.C." and its enclaves for forts and arsenals.

| No state of Emergency and is not at war |

| US continues to be in a permanent state of national emergency since March 9, 1933, and possibly as far back as the Civil War |

| Adjournment of Congress sine die |

Seven southern nation States of America walked out of the Second Session of the Thirty-sixth Congress on March 27, 1861.

In so doing, the Constitutional due process quorum necessary for Congress to vote was (temporarily) lost and Congress was adjourned sine die, or "without day." To some, this meant that there was no lawful quorum to set a specific day and time to reconvene both Houses of Congress.

| On April 15, 1861, President Lincoln reconvened Congress under the Executive branch by proclamation (number 1): |
| "I do hereby, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution, convene both Houses of Congress." |

The corporate government created in 1871 will continue to exist as long as:

1. "state of war" or "emergency"
reconvene. Some say that according to Robert's Rules of Order, Congress automatically dissolved because there are no provisions within the Constitution allowing the passage of any Congressional vote without a quorum of the States. Keep in mind that Robert's Rules of Order was created and published by Henry Martyn Robert who was born in South Carolina in 1837. He sold a half million copies of his rules by 1914. Those rules were not made a part of the Constitution or any Amendment to the Constitution. According to The Constitution, Congress was only required to meet at least once in every year on a specific date unless changed by law and a smaller number may adjourn from day to day. Therefore, because there were no other provisions, dissolution does not take place unless "the people", the creators thereof, or the posterity thereof, the sovereigns of the states, say so.

Because the kings men did not attend a meeting required by Him does not constitute a loss of the King's kingdom or His government. It just means that such men may loose their heads for not obeying the King. The King in this case is the people or "We, the people"

"...to prevent abuses in our government, we will assemble in Convention, recall our delegated powers, and punish our servants for abusing the trust reposed to them." --paraphrased by Patrick Henry, June 1788 exists (War on Drugs, War on Poverty, War on Terrorism, War on Iraq, etc.),

2. the President does not terminate "martial" or "emergency" powers by Executive Order or decree, or

3. the people do not resist submission and terminate by restoring lawful civil courts, processes and procedures under authority of the "inherent political powers" of the people.

The Fourteenth Amendment for all intents and purposes does not exist. On March 28, 1861 Congress adjourned sine die and never has reconvened de jure.

The original Thirteenth Amendment (no title of nobility), approved by 13 of the 17 states March 12, 1819 and thereby ratified, is the last proper draft of a de jure Amendment but is not recognized by the corporate (defacto) UNITED STATES.

The original 13th Amendment prohibits "Esquires" (Attorneys) from holding positions of public office.
The United States of America Military Flag

plain and simple--no gold fringe or other ornaments and symbolism attached

Not the original USA Military flag

Some say it is a flag of Admiralty/Maritime type jurisdiction and is not suppose to be used on Land. Others say it's not a flag at all, but fiction.

However, the gold fringe which surrounds the flag gives notice that the American flag has been captured and is now being used by the corporate so-called government to give notice of its jurisdiction.

The flag shown above appears to be a "USA flag" but has one or more of the following:

1. Gold fringe along its borders (called "a badge")
2. Gold braided cord (tassel) hanging from pole
3. Ball on top of pole (last cannon ball fired)
4. Eagle on top of pole
5. Spear on top of pole

The flag shown above is Not described in Title 4 of USC and therefore is illegal on land except for maybe (1) the President since he is in charge of Naval Forces on high seas, and (2) naval offices and yards.

President Eisenhower settled the debate on the width of the fringe.

The so-called justification for a Naval/Maritime flag to be on land is that all land was under the high water mark at one time even if it was

Prior to the 1950's, state republic flags were mostly flown, but when a USA flag was flown it was one of the following:

1. Military flag--Horizontal stripes, white stars on blue background
   Has no fringe, braid (tassel), eagle, ball, spear, etc.

   (Correct size ratio is 1 x 1.9)

Civil Flag -- intended for peace time usage, denoting civil jurisdiction under the Constitution and common law, has vertical stripes, blue stars on white background--last flown before Civil War

A 1913 Postcard has a civil flag flying on the Customs House in San Francisco (Click on picture to enlarge)

Flags on poles flying at the same height as other flags have equal status. A flag flying higher than the flag below indicates superiority over the flag below. Note that corporate state flags fly below the US flag.

Keep in mind that the states were originally Sovereign over the central government and only the state flags were flown except in the District of Columbia not exceeding 10 miles square, its territories, forts, dockyards, arsenals, and other needful buildings, such as Post Offices, purchased with the consent of the legislature of the affected state.

(Constitution, Section 8, Clause 17)

The people in the geographic continental USA are at peace but the corporate government continues to be at war to exist, to increase and perpetuate debt, and to enrich others through Defence contracts.

Governing Body

Having three separate and distinct Branches or Departments

1. Legislature (Constitution; Article I) --can enact positive law
2. Executive (Constitution; Article II)
3. Judicial (Constitution; Article III) --known as article III courts

The purpose of having three separate and distinct branches is for checks and balances so that no one man or branch of government has complete power.

GOVERNING BODY

The President (a Caesar) rules by Executive Order (Unconstitutional)

Congress and the Courts are under the President. The President is the Chief Executive Officer (C.E.O.) of the government corporation. Impeachment today is nearly impossible, unless it is in the best interest of the controlling bankers and the one-world government.
Separation of Powers

"To announce that there must be no criticism of the President, or that we are to stand by the President, right or wrong, is not only unpatriotic and servile, but is morally treasonable to the American public."

--Theodore Roosevelt, 1912

The legends have been credited to Benjamin Franklin by many, and the coin, as a consequence, has been referred to as the Franklin Cent."

"These cents were coined in New Haven, Conn., and possibly elsewhere. Most of the copper used in this coinage came from military stores. It is believed to have been the copper bands which held together the powder kegs sent to us by the French."

The Federal Reserve places the $100 billion in a checking account and the government writes

Find out for yourself if all this is true. And then, go to your local law library and look up the case of Lewis vs. US, case #80-5905, 9th Circuit, June 24, 1982. It reads in part: "Examining the organization and function of the Federal Reserve Banks and applying the relevant factors, we conclude that the federal reserve are NOT federal instrumentality's . . but are independent and privately owned and controlled corporations - federal reserve banks are listed neither as 'wholly-owned' government corporations [under 31 USC Section 846] nor as 'mixed ownership' corporations [under 31 USC Section 856] . . . 28 USC Sections 1346(b), 2671."

"Thomas Jefferson recommended on September 2, 1776, to the Continental Congress, that the United States adopt the silver "Spanish Milled Dollar" called "Pillar Pieces of Eight", as our monetary unit of value, since daily trade was transacted in that coin."
--The United States Mint

A "dollar" was defined by law as 371.25 grains of pure silver, which was the amount contained in a One-Dollar silver coin.

The gold eagle was equivalent to Ten silver dollars and had 247.50 grains of pure gold.

Therefore, 371.25 grains of pure silver was equivalent to 24.75 grains of pure gold; a 15:1 ratio.

Coinage started in 1783. The first gold coins were made July 31, 1795 and consisted of 744 half eagles. The first paper currency was issued in 1862. Coinage of Silver coins for circulation ended with the 1964 coins.

Silver Certificates were contracts initially redeemable in face value silver coin or silver bullion. Silver Certificates were released into circulation in 1878, redemption in silver dollars ceased in 1934, last printed in 1957, and redemption in all forms ceased on June 24, 1968.

Gold Certificates were contracts checks or prints debt currency against the balance. In other words, this private banking system creates so-called money out of thin air and the bankers get interest on it forever. In addition, new debt and debt currency has to be created just to cover the compounding interest. An ideal "Ponzi scheme."

Keep in mind that bonds are IOU's and are to be paid back by the people through their future labor or the labor of their posterity. That is why wars are created and perpetuated, government bureaucracy and empire building increases, and superfluous spending continues. They create an ongoing and ever increasing debt to enslave the people and their posterity. Debt must be continually created to feed the debt-credit economy system.

The so-called expanding economy always needs new debt notes (FRN's) and therefore more debt must be created. Budgets can never be balanced in this type of system. If the budget is balanced, the economy will collapse because no new FRN's can be printed and no new debt credit created.

The FRB pays 2½¢ per FRN note printed whether $1 or $1000. The US in-turn pays FRB interest indefinitely for each outstanding note or representation of a note. With electronic banking FRN's are created out of nothing and nothing being printed. What a deal!

Central Banking and credit initially redeemable in face value Gold coin or gold bullion. Gold Certificates were released into circulation in 1882 and ended in 1928.

Under the "free coinage" provision, no charge was to be made for converting gold or silver bullion into coins "weight for weight." At the depositor's option, however, he could demand an immediate exchange of coins for his bullion, for which privilege a deduction of one-half of one percent was to be imposed.

Although a government mint was approved February 21, 1782, no immediate action was taken. The first mint building was erected in 1792 on Seventh Street near Arch in Philadelphia. The first coin struck was the half disme (half-dime). Fifteen hundred were produced during the month of July 1792 before the mint was completed. File marks on early coins was a mint process of weight adjustment.

--A GUIDE BOOK of UNITED STATES COINS 35th Edition

The Mint was initially a part of the Department of State, became an independent agency in 1799, and became part of the Department of the Treasury in 1873 when the Mint's administrative headquarters moved from Philadelphia to Washington, D.C.

Beginning in 1963, the words "redeemable in lawful money " and " will pay to the bearer on demand " were removed from future issues of Federal Reserve Notes

Public Law 88-36, approved June 4, 1963 made Silver certificates redeemable for silver bullion in the form of pellets or granulations and not in silver dollars. The exchange could only take place at the U.S. Assay Office in San Francisco up to June 24, 1968. After that, Silver certificates were no longer redeemable and are only legal tender having same value as Federal Reserve Notes.

The silver content of the dimes and quarters was completely eliminated under the Coinage Act of 1965 and the silver content of the half dollars was greatly reduced and or eliminated since then. Coins that no longer have silver content are called "Copper-nickel clad coins" or just "clad coins" and have no intrinsic value.

In 1982, the cent was changed from being 95 percent copper and 5 percent zinc to copper plated zinc weighting 20 percent less. The cent is now just like a token.

“If the American people ever allow private banks (the Federal Reserve Banks) to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered.”

FRN's were first issued in 1914.

The Independent Treasury Act of 1921 suspended the de jure Treasury Department of the United States government and turned it over to a private corporation called the Federal Reserve (de jure means "by right of lawful establishment")

Just prior to the Stock Market crash of 1929, millions of dollars of gold was taken out of this Country and transferred to England.

All of the remaining assets of the US citizens, including their person, are held by the Depository Trust Corporation (DTC), the central securities depository, at 55 Water Street, New York, NY - secured by Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) Commercial Liens, which are then monetized as "debt money" by the Federal Reserve.

Under the umbrella of the DTC lies the CEDE Corporation, the Federal Reserve Corporation and the American Bar Association, the "legal arm" of the banking interests.

The people are Sovereign
"...at the Revolution, the sovereignty devolved on the people; and they are truly the sovereigns of the country, but they are sovereigns without subjects... with none to govern but themselves; the citizens of America are equal as fellow citizens, and as joint tenants in the sovereignty."
--Chisholm v. Georgia (US) 2 Dall 419, 454, 1 L Ed 440, 455 @Dall 1793 pp471-472

A piece of paper does not give people the right to walk the earth as one of God's creatures. People have that right without the Constitution, without the Amendments some people call the "Bill of Rights," and without a Birth Certificate. No Political or Royal figure can give one the right to be free or take that right away. The idea that one is "given" what one already has is an illusion created for the purposes of control, power, and manipulation. Such an idea exists only when people allow it to exist or are ignorant of their rights.

As a result of a king's uncontrolled spending spree, France had severe inflation which resulted in a monetary crisis. A group of people stormed the Bastille in Paris on July 15th 1789, and the French Revolution was born. The 'Rights of Man' was declared on August 26, 1789. By midsummer of 1792, the king was dethroned and the royal family was

US citizens (Chattel Property) are belligerents in the field and are "subject to its jurisdiction" (Washington DC)

U.S. citizens are 14th Amendment citizens implemented by the Civil Rights Act of 1866 originally established for the newly freed slaves.

That is to say: "Now slaves of the corporate government plantation"

Today, almost all mothers, black or white, unknowingly inform on their own babies. Take a look at the so-called "Birth Certificate" CERTIFICATE OF LIVE BIRTH where the mother signs and you will see the title of the box stating in small print:

"MOTHER OR OTHER INFORMANT."

The word "OTHER" makes the mother "an informant." By signing the "Birth Certificate" as an informer, she contracts with the government putting her child and her child's future labor as collateral for the national debt (servitude--slavery). The father or mother can rescind the contract within three business days (Truth-in-Lending).

Since the Birth Certificate neither lists the father as the husband nor lists the wife's acceptance of the father's surname as her own but has the mothers maiden name instead, the baby is considered a BASTARD. Bastards are therefore under the care and control of the Priest Rule (democracy) and can be taken from the mother at any time.
imprisoned. Since the people no longer had any use for a king and queen, Louis XVI was beheaded on January 21, 1793 and Marie Antoinette was beheaded later that year. Therefore, it is the people who are really in control. It is intended for government to be the servants and the people to be the masters. It is better for the government to fear the people than the people fear their government.

The hospitals receive a fairly large monetary benefit ($3,000, more or less, per child) from the corporate government for having Birth Certificates filled out and signed.

People become surety for the debt by a number of different ways. One way is by a Birth Certificate when the baby's footprint is placed thereon before it touches the land. The certificate is recorded at a County Recorder, then sent to a Secretary of State which sends it to the Bureau of Census of the Commerce Department. This process converts a man's life, labor, and property to an asset of the US government when this person receives a benefit from the government such as a drivers license, food stamps, free mail delivery, etc. This person becomes a fictional persona in commerce. The Birth Certificate is an unrevealed "Trust Instrument" originally designed for the children of the newly freed black slaves after the 14th Amendment. The US has the ability to tax and regulate commerce.

Bond Servant

To cover the debt in 1933 and future debt, the corporate government determined and established the value of the future labor of each individual in its jurisdiction to be $630,000. A bond of $630,000 is set on each Certificate of Live Birth. The certificates are bundled together into sets and then placed as securities on the open market. These certificates are then purchased by the Federal Reserve and/or foreign bankers. The purchaser is the "holder" of "Title." This process made each and every person in this jurisdiction a bond servant.

Common Law is based on custom and usage and includes the Magna Carta and The great Charter of the Forest.

Common Law has two basic requirements:
1. Do not Offend Anyone
2. Honor all contracts

4. Statutes

There are now over 60 million of these so-called laws on the books. Keep in mind "ignorance of the law is no excuse" Everyone must be guilty of something. The more so-called laws, the more revenue generated.

Crime
A crime is an offence against a public law. This word, in its most general signification, comprehends all offences but, in its limited sense, it is confined to felony.
1 Chitty, Gen. Pr. 14.
2. The term misdemeanor includes every offence inferior to felony, but punishable by indictment or by particular prescribed proceedings.
3. The term offence, also, may be considered as, having the same meaning, but is usually, by itself, understood to be a crime not indictable but punishable, summarily, or by the forfeiture of, a penalty. Burn's Just. Misdemeanor.
4. Crimes are defined and punished by statutes and by the common law. Most common law offences are as well known, and as precisely ascertained, as those which are defined by statutes; yet, from the difficulty of exactly defining and describing every act which ought to be punished, the vital and preserving principle has been adopted, that all immoral acts which tend to the prejudice of the community are punishable by courts of justice. 2 Swift's Dig.
All from Bouvier's Law Dictionary

Addiction to narcotic drugs and use of marihuana will be treated as if such were commercial crime."

"...there simply is too much law (government) to even function - we cannot get out of our own way, we have tied ourselves in knots - when we were supposed to have a limited government and the purpose of the Constitution was to tie government down to the EXPRESS powers given it. There simply is nothing left that government does not touch, have its hands on, and has not made a mess of. More law, more government will not save us - they are the problem." -

Legal determination
"THERE IS NO LAWYER OR JUDGE THAT CAN OR WILL GO AGAINST THIS COLORABLE SYSTEM!!"
"The people's one supreme Court is the county Court of record; the highest Court in the Land. Once it rules, the United States Supreme Courts, Federal or State, can not question the ruling; read the 7th amendment. The State and federal Courts are inferior tribunals to We the People's one supreme Court. The one supreme Court exist wherever the People convene it! ...the People have agreed to convene it at the county seat and the county judge is elect[ed] by the people as the administrator of their one supreme Court of Record. He makes no judicial ruling. He is only there to keep the Court open and see that it is run orderly and enforce the judgments of the Court of the People. When the jury is called and has been sworn from among the People they are the twelve justices sitting as the one supreme Court of Record for the People of that county."

Thomas Jefferson worried about that the Courts would overstep their authority and instead of interpreting the law would begin making law, an oligarchy, the rule of few over many.

The very first Supreme Court Justice, John Jay, said, "Americans should select and prefer Christians as their rulers."

"Under this system, the judge makes "legal determinations" which is in accord with the creditors of this country. No Lawyer (Ly'Er) will demand a "JUDICIAL DETERMINATION". Legal Determinations ARE NOT appealable as are Judicial Determinations!! Legal determinations are anything the judge says they are under their colorable Public policy laws. However, Judicial determinations are in accordance with the Public Law and are subject to CONstitutional constraints."

"Since the Erie RR v. Thompkins decision in 1938, the courts have operating under Public Policy, in the interest of the "nations creditors, instead of Public Law in accord with the CONstitution."

"The judges are not allowed to consider any case law prior to 1938! BUT, there is one case, Clearfield Trust, et al v. US, 318 US 363 (1943), (see attachment). All courts are Administrative Tribunals, operating under a Colorable Admiralty Jurisdiction called Statutory Jurisdiction and all judges are Administrators, and all Lawyers (Pronounced Ly'Er) are officers of the colorable courts."

Prisons for incarceration

PRISONS FOR PROFIT

A Commercial Business

More and more prisons today are...
To Protect Society

The responsibility, accountability, and liability for incarceration belongs to the state.

Inmates are not merchandise to be sold for profit.

privately owned and run as a profit making commercial enterprise creating products and services for sale. It is believed that many judges hold stock or an interest in these privatized prisons. These commercially run prisons do not have the best interest of the Inmates or Staff in mind but the bottom line--PROFIT. They need a continuous supply of low-cost labor (slaves) to produce products in order to increase profits. Even when the crime rate is down, these privateers lobby the appropriate governmental and judicial authorities to increase the incarceration rate in order to add to their already substantial profit taking. There are no checks and balances for monitoring this type of system.

To name a few privateers:

- Corrections Corporation of America (CCA)--founded in 1983, based in Nashville, Tennessee, now operates more than 77 facilities across the USA
- Wackenhut Services, Inc. of Florida
- Wackenhut Corrections Corp.(WCC)--misappropriated over $700,000 of funds in Texas, which were allocated by that state for drug rehabilitation programs. Directors consists of former members of the FBI and CIA.
- Becon-Wackenhut Inc. of Florida
- U.S. Corrections Corporation, a private company headquartered in Louisville, Kentucky--since 1986
- Rehabilitative Industries &
The initial purpose of prisons is to protect the people from criminals.

Diversified Enterprises Inc. (PRIDE), a firm based in Clearwater, Florida, now manages all 53 Florida prison work programs as a for profit operation. PRIDE has made a $4 million profit in one year. Many states considering privatization of prison industries are studying the PRIDE operation. PRIDE products range from optical and dental items to modular office systems.

- Pricor Corporation
- American Correctional Systems, Inc.
- Corrections Development Corporation
- Buckingham Security Ltd.
- Cornell Corrections--currently has contracts to operate 81 facilities in 17 states and the District of Columbia
- Correctional Services Corp.(CSC)
- UNICOR--a privately owned corporation that maintains factories in every Federal Prison in the country.

Nationwide sales of "PRISON PRODUCED PRODUCTS" in year 2000 was 8.9 billion dollars. Some products produced are "office furniture, high tech military cable and wiring systems, mattress and boxsprings, camouflage military uniforms, sheets, towels, pillow cases, brooms, mops, etcetera."

Best Western International, Inc, a major hotel chain, employs over thirty Arizona prison workers to operate the hotel's telephone reservation system. Trans World Airlines, Inc. hires young offenders.

Government may search and seize Americans' papers and effects without probable cause to assist in so-called terror investigation. -- Patriot Act

In Nazi Germany, It started with:

"Where's your papers?"

or "Your papers, please?!

History repeats itself. Now, it is:

"ID, please?"

Property is constantly, currently, and consistently being taken for alleged taxes without due process and without just compensation.

The Senate examined exactly what powers they had granted the President by amending the Trading With the Enemy Act on March 9, 1933, they concluded that: "Under these powers the president may: seize property; organize and control the means of production; seize commodities; assign military forces abroad; institute martial law [actually: Martial Rule]; seize and control all transportation and communication; regulate the operation of private industry; restrict travel, and in a plethora of particular ways, control the lives of all American citizens."
--Senate Report 93-549.

Amendment VI

"In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury..., and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense."
(does not say "attorney")

Government may jail Americans indefinitely without a trial. --Patriot Act

So-called Government may monitor federal prison jailhouse conversations between attorneys and clients, and deny counsel to Americans accused of crimes.

Fascism police-state tactics and methods, similar to Nazi Germany

"The privileges and immunities clause of the Fourteenth Amendment protects very few rights because it neither incorporates any of the Bill of Rights nor protects all rights of individual citizens. See Slaughter-House Cases, 83 U.S. (16 Wall.) 36, 21 L.Ed. 394 (1873). Instead, this provision protects only those rights peculiar to being a citizen of the federal government; it does not protect those rights which relate to state citizenship."

In U.S. Titles and Codes "State" refers to U.S. possessions such as Puerto Rico, Guam, etc.
Each state is a nation unto itself

The book "Golden Fleece in Nevada" written by Judge Clel Georgetta states "In 1780, the Continental Congress adopted a resolution requesting the thirteen original states to surrender to the central government (the Confederation) all the lands they claimed in the territory west of their original boundaries [west of the Appalachian Mountains] to the Mississippi, so such lands could be sold to private interests for money to pay off the debt incurred by the Revolutionary War, and then the area would be divided into new states to be admitted into the Confederation on the same basis as the original states." Judge Georgetta continues "The thirteen independent sovereign states were first joined together in a Federal Union known as 'The Confederation' and in 1781 ratified 'The Articles of Confederation and Perpetual Union.' Those Articles contain the following words: Article II. Each state retains its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right, which is not by this confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled. Article IX. ...provides also that no state shall be deprived of territory for the benefit of the United States. There can be no doubt that the purpose of guaranteeing each state its complete sovereignty was to waylay all fear of joining the organization. It was those words of guaranty in the Articles that the various states joined the 'Confederation' in order to form a Central Government to perform certain functions for all the states as a group. It was to be a central government with very limited power." written by Dick Carver, Nye County Commissioner, member of the Nevada State Land Use Planning Advisory Council.

Politicians and the legislature of each state formed a new so-called government (de facto) and incorporated it into the corporate US commercial corporation a.k.a. UNITED STATES, Inc. and are therefore under its jurisdiction. This so-called government is actually a limited-liability corporation (Limited Liability Act of 1851), chartered in a private, military, international, commercial, admiralty/maritime jurisdiction, entitled "STATE OF..." as evidenced by, inter alia, the change in the seal and the flag and the creation of a new constitution. Each "STATE OF..." collects whole life insurance premiums, known as "taxes," for the International Monetary Fund, based, inter alia, upon the Limited Liability Act of 1851 and the bankruptcy of United States of 1933.

"In this state" or "within this state" includes all federal areas lying within the exterior boundaries of the state. - Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 82.04.200 found at: http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=82.04.200

The citizens of the corporate States, federal areas, are "subjects" and are called "Residents." Derived from "res" meaning "the thing" and "ident" meaning "identify." Therefore, a "resident" is "a thing identified." And, "President" is "P-resident," meaning "Principal"
"I am not a "Resident," not a "Non-resident," not in "in this state," not in "within this state" and certainly not a UNITED STATES citizen. If I am to be categorized or described, one can consider Me a living soul in a flesh and blood man on the land, in esse, being one of the people of "We the people" or the posterity thereof, a California national, a member of the Sovereign. California, being a nation unto itself, having a republican form of government having limited powers limited by the 1849 Constitution, drafted and adopted by "We the People."--Jack; Slevkoff

"We the people" created the states (the republics) and are Sovereign over the states.

Certain powers are granted to the state, not by the state.

A document made by the people to create a state purposely limits the powers granted to the state; said document does not measure the rights of those governed, but is to assure that those rights are not trampled upon.

Sovereigns of California are sometimes referred to as "California nationals." In Texas, "Texas nationals," etc.

Likewise, "We the People" made the document that created the government of the United States of America (USA) and are therefore sovereign over the USA government.

Also, people from each individual state of the states united participated in the creation of the document that created the government of the united states of America with limited power. The resident." of the federal area.

"Nonresident" means any person whose residence is outside "this state" and who is temporarily sojourning "WITHIN THIS STATE". [1961 c 12 §46.04.360. Prior: 1959 c 49 § 37; prior: (i) 1943 c 153 § 1, part; 1937 c 188 § 1, part; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6312-1, part. (ii) 1937 c 189 § 1, part; RRS § 6360-1, part.] (emphasis added).

The corporate states were created by incorporation into the corporate federal United States as corporate entities appearing to be similar to and overlaying the republics so as not to rouse suspicion. Likewise, the corporate states created political subdivisions of the corporate state such as COUNTY OF FRESNO being similar to Fresno county but is not; COUNTY OF MADERA being similar to Madera county but is not; etc.

The corporate States are controlled by the corporate US government by its purse strings such as grants, funding, matching funds, revenue sharing, disaster relief, etc.

Section 666 of the Federal Social Security Code (42 USC §666) preempts Idaho's Free Exercise of Religion Act (FERA) and similar acts of other states. Section 666 appears to mandate that every State is to force everyone to identify with a Social Security Number (SSN) in Comprehensive Annual Financial Report people from each state accepted and gave their approval with the conditions that each individual state gave up only certain portions of their power on an equal basis but retained all other rights and powers in the states and in the people. Thereby, the states and the people in each state retained their Sovereignty over the government of the united states of America.

California's republic Flag

This flag was first flown on June 14, 1846 by American settlers in California who revolted against Mexican rule in California and proclaimed an independent republic. This short-lived revolution ended on July 9, 1846. They raised a bear flag that had a gold star and red stripe from "Old Glory" and a gold color silhouette of the California Grizzly.

[Although some people believe it was a gold star and bear, I believe it was a brownish red star and bear based on the Texas flag and realizing it was painted using a red-colored jam; the original photo of the flag also suggests that the color was the same as the stripe]

A one word change in the original State (California) constitution from "unalienable" to "inalienable" made rights into privileges.

"Inalienable" means government given rights that are "in-a-lien-able" condition.
"Unalienable" means God given rights that are "not-in-a-lien-able" condition.

The IRS is a collection arm of the Federal Reserve. The Federal Reserve was created by the Bank of England in 1913 and is owned by foreign investors. The IRS is not listed as a government agency like other government agencies.

"All individual Income Tax revenues are gone before one nickel is spent on services taxpayers expect from government" -- Ronald Reagan, 1984 Grace Commission Report

This corporate Government is actually funded by the trillions of dollars collected from duties on import/exports and the excise taxes placed on cigarettes, Liquors and other products. Not one cent of the trillions collected from income taxes by IRS runs the government. Highways are funded by Gasoline taxes. The Postal Service is run like a business and is funded by postage (stamps and the like).

The Constitution provides for imposts, excises, and duties to provide funds for running the government.

Unalienable rights (are "not-a-lien-able" condition) meaning "can not be liened" in other words, "cannot be infringed upon"
(rights that can not be taken away or lost)
Composed of:
- God given rights,
- Substantial rights,
- Fundamental rights,
- Natural rights (breathe, locomotion etc.)

Flesh and blood people have unalienable rights granted to them by their creator, which can never be sold, given away, or contracted away.

Inalienable rights
Government given rights that are really Privileges.
Can be taken away at any time
(are "in-a-lien-able" condition)

Persons (legal fictions) have only inalienable rights, which may be surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights.

So-called Benefits are as follows:

1. Social Security
   Applying for and receiving an "SS card" makes one a member of the "US DC Communist Party" and is eligible for benefits of the party membership. Since one is eligible for benefits, 100% of ones earnings (wages) belongs to the party and the party determines what they will keep and how much you will get back. (You paid all your working life and there are no guarantees that there will be money for you to help in retirement)

2. Medicare
3. Medicaid
4. Grants
   Disaster relief

"The Master does not ask his servants
or slaves for benefits."
No US benefits--Every living soul is responsible for themselves and has the option of helping others.

Each living soul gives accordingly to help others in need and receives the credit or gives the credit to his Maker and Provider.

No tax burdens or government debt obligations.

Corporate government takes your money and gets credit for helping others. Politicians in return create more such programs to get more votes. Eventually there is no more to collect and give. Everyone becomes takers and there are no givers. The government then collapses within. That is why democracy never survives.

Records

Ex-officio clerks

County Clerk is also Clerk of the superior court, (i.e. a court of common law) and "courts of record"

Records are also kept by Sovereigns such as in a family Bible

Records Office

Created by statute to keep track of the corporate government's holdings which are applied as collateral to the increasing debt. The written records are a continuation of the "Doomsday Book" which keeps track of the Crown of England's holdings. The "Doomsday Book" originated as a written record of the conquered holdings of king William, which was later the basis of his taxes and grants.

Property recorded at the recorders office makes the corporate de facto government "holders in due course"

Your TV is not recorded there, therefore you are "holder in due course" for the TV.
Record the date family members are born, married, and the date they pass on in the Family Bible

"Birth Certificate" is required. It creates a trust and puts one into commerce as a fictional persona

The "Death Certificate" closes the trust

"Marriage License". Invokes the Corporate State to be the third party to your union and whatever you conceive is theirs and becomes their offspring (children). That is why they can take away your children at any time at their discretion. The State leaves them in your custody and care unless or until they find reason not to.

Definitions from BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY, 4th Ed:

"license"
"The permission by competent authority to do an act which without such permission, would be illegal."

“marriage license”
“A license or permission granted by public authority to persons who intend to intermarry.”
What if you apply and the State says "no"?

"Intermarry" is "Miscegenation"
"Miscegenation"
"mixture of races; marriage between persons of different races, as between a white and a Negro."
Some marriage licenses will actually state that its purpose is for interracial marriage.

"marriage certificate"
"An instrument which certifies a marriage, and is executed by the person officiating at the marriage; it is not intended to be signed by the
Both George Washington and Abraham Lincoln were married without a marriage license. They simply recorded their marriages in their Family Bibles. It is not intended to be signed by the parties, but is evidence of the marriage. It seems that a certificate would be more appropriate than a license.

In 1867, President Andrew Johnson signed legislation creating the first Department of Education. Its main purpose was to collect information and statistics about the nation's schools. However, many people feared the Department would exercise too much control over local schools and called for its abolition. Thus, the new Department was demoted to an Office of Education in 1868. In 1979, Congress passed Public Law 96-88 creating the Department of Education.

In the 1860's, a budget of $15,000 and four employees handled education fact-finding. By 1965, the Office of Education employed more than 2,113 persons with a budget of $1.5 billion. As of early 2002, the U.S. Department of Education has about 4,800 employees and a budget of $54.5 billion.

This government wants to control the churches by having them come under their jurisdiction as corporations under Section 501(c)(3). under Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code (U.S. Code). This is to prevent the clergy, Pastors, Ministers, etc. from having any political influence on its members or the public in general. This government regulates what is to be said and not to be said.

These churches also display the gold fringe flag. Their faith is in the government and not in God. They exist by permission of this government not by God alone.

They signed away their Birthright for a so-called benefit: "Tax-exempt corporation".

"I believe that America is the greatest country in history and for good reasons, but America has been changing and not for the better. Our free society has been falling prey to a more repressive system with methods for the increased control of people. The return of groups and individuals to the controlling ideology of Imperialism and Marxism using the structures of Corporation, Socialism and Democracy. The result is that this nation's foundational principles based on the ideology of Liberty are now in danger of extinction."

--Darren Perkins; A.D. 2002

"There are many people involved in the fight to return our country to a sovereign nation and there are many people who are just plain sick and tired of the "governmental" controls placed on our every day lives. The "government" controls our lives via taxation, levies, traffic tickets, code enforcement, licensing, permits, registrations, inspections, the mails, banking, child protective services, airport "in"-security, etc.... They listen to our telephone conversations, read our e-mails, rifle through our belongings during roadside searches and now they can come into our homes without a search warrant - even when we're not home. Troops are already being trained to stop us on the highways and demand to see our "papers please." Does any of this sound remotely familiar? Think it can't happen here? When is enough going to be enough? At what point do we say "NO MORE!"?"--Ann Sims 2003
"Education is the best security for maintaining liberties, and, "a nation of well-informed men who have been taught to know and prize the rights which God has given them cannot be enslaved. It is in the region of ignorance that tyranny reigns."

-- Benjamin Franklin, Autobiography

"It will be of little avail to the people that the laws are made by men of their own choice, if the laws be so voluminous that they cannot be read, or so incoherent that they cannot be understood; if they be repealed or revised before they are promulgated, or undergo such incessant changes that no man who knows what the law is today can guess what it will be tomorrow."

-- James Madison, Federalist no. 62, February 27, 1788

"If ye love wealth better than liberty, the tranquility of servitude better than the animating contest of freedom, go home from us in peace. We ask not your counsels or arms. Crouch down and lick the hands which feed you. May your chains set lightly upon you, and may posterity forget ye were our countrymen."

"Why of course the people don't want war. Why should some poor slob on a farm want to risk his life in a war when the best he can get out of it is to come back to his farm in one piece? Naturally the common people don't want war neither in Russia, nor in England, nor for that matter in Germany. That is understood. But, after all, it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship. Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the peacemakers for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."

longer exists as "united states"; rather, it is now simply a single entity known as "America" whose state-boundaries are now secondary, and which exists as a shell of its former self. It is no longer a land of peace and prosperity, except what little can be maintained in an atmosphere of violence and hostile competition as its inhabitants fight for freedom against one another, each struggling via the law of the jungle to "tax or be taxed, regulate or be regulated." This is only possible in an oppressive, captive environment, which the original system was created to preclude; the only solution, it seems, is to restore this former system, ending federal supremacy and once again restoring supreme sovereignty to the states as a check on such federal excess." --Defining 'America' July 5, 2004 by Brian McCandliss who is a business and economics graduate of Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, a law student, and a businessman in Detroit, Michigan.

"We are fast approaching the stage of the ultimate inversion: the stage where the government is free to do anything it pleases, while the citizens may act only by permission; which is the stage of the darkest periods of human history, the stage of rule by brute force." --Ayn Rand, The Nature of Government

"When force is the standard, the murderer wins over the pickpocket, and then that society vanishes, in a spread of ruins and slaughter. Do you wish to know whether that day is coming? Watch Money. Money is a barometer of a society's virtue. When you see that trading is done, not by consent, but by compulsion - when you see that in order to produce, you need permission from men who produce nothing - when you see that money is flowing to those who deal, not in goods, but in favors - when you see men get richer by graft and pull than by work, and your laws don't protect you against them, but protect them against you - when you see corruption being rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice - you may know that our society is doomed. Money is so noble a medium that it does not compete with guns and it does not make terms with brutality. It will not permit a country to survive as half-property, half-loot. Whenever destroyers appear among men, they start by destroying money, for money is men's protection, and the base of a moral existence." --Ayn Rand, whose given name is Alissa Rosenbaum was a witness to the socialist horrors of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. She escaped and arrived in the United States in 1926 on a visitor's visa, but never returned. Ayn Rand became a successful novelist and popular philosopher of reason and individualism after working as a screenwriter in Hollywood. She helped inspire the modern libertarian movement.
the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government..."

Sound familiar? It should. It is from the second paragraph of the American Declaration of Independence.

"Every act of resistance makes tyranny weaker. Many, many acts of resistance, even small ones, can topple it. I don’t wish suffering on myself or anyone else, but I am proud of people who have stood up for truth and justice when it was dangerous to do so. And I’ll be proud to BE one of those people, no matter what happens to me." --Tessa David Rose (Wife of Larken Rose)

"Most people prefer to believe that their leaders are just and fair, even in the face of evidence to the contrary, because once a Citizen acknowledges that the government under which he lives is lying and corrupt, the Citizen has to choose what he or she will do about it. To take action in the face of corrupt government entails risks of harm to life and loved ones. To choose to do nothing is to surrender one’s self-image of standing for principles. Most people do not have the courage to face that choice. Hence, most propaganda is not designed to fool the critical thinker but only to give moral cowards an excuse not to think at all." --Michael Rivero

I would suggest reading the following books:

The Creature From Jekyll Island (2002) by G. Edward Griffin
Reads like a detective story --cause of wars, boom-bust cycles, inflation, depression, prosperity, etc and who is behind it all.

None Dare Call It Conspiracy by Gary Allen

Death of a Nation; None Dare Call It Treason by John A. Stormer

Tragedy and Hope (1977) by Dr. Carroll Quigley a Harvard professor and an intimate, high level member of the international elite, more commonly known today as the New World Order. 1,348 pages. This book is important to read because Quigley meticulously details the carefully planned and orchestrated scheme of the capitalistic elite and their plot to establish a one world government.

"Regarding the pledge of allegiance to the "Republic." When one "pledges" anything and particularly allegiance he/she is making an oath. We have had oath discussions before but I don't think we take it seriously enough. Though I have MAJOR issues with the Jehovah’s Witnesses I must agree with them that taking an oath or a pledge goes against Scripture. Even they do not obey this when it comes to signing "under penalty of Perjury." In my correspondence with Al Thompson he is adimate about this point. He spends a great deal of time in the Bible and has concluded that this is the trap that gets us into those adhesion contracts and entanglements with the "system." I tend to agree with him more and more. Technically, the only people that should work for [corporate] government,

"First they came for the Communists, and I didn't speak up, because I wasn't a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up, because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant. Then they came for me, and by that time there was no one left to speak up for me." --Rev. Martin Niemoller (1945)

most of which requires an oath, are the non-believers. When they become believers they should "come out of Babylon" so to speak and disengage themselves from satan's system. As much as we can rely on the constitution it DOES require oaths. Kinda makes you wonder, doesn't it? I've long since retired from making my "patriotism" a religion. My wife and I both are military kids. We grew up Very patriotic. Making the pledge, singing the anthem hand over heart, signing under "penalty of Perjury." We no longer claim a citizenship anywhere but God's Kingdom because of His promise. Once the veil is lifted and satan's deception is exposed that is really all that we as believers have left. It was really all that we had to begin with and that is what God has been trying to tell us since the Garden of Eden. Blind loyal nationalism has been the gravestone and suffering of so many millions of people it almost makes me ill. America, despite its roots is NOT a Christian nation and will likely never be one. The membership role of the Kingdom of Heaven is ours to expand no matter where we live. THAT is my country. HE is my King and whom I will serve. He has jurisdiction. I will give to Him that which is His and to Caesar that which is Caesar's (nothing.) I am a bond servant of Christ and will take NO oaths to any other man, beast, or fiction for that would be trying to serve two masters. That cannot be done." --Rick; Hartz (Rickity) 9/30/2005

"I could sent you the information on how the pledge of allegiance got started and by whom [if you want] but a Christian could never give their allegiance to anyone other than God. I would give my loyalty to this country which I have done, [being USMC retired] but my allegiance is to God only."--Al Beyer 10/1/2005.
