Dear Taxpayer(s):

This is in reply to your Tax return dated Aug 30, 2006

We have determined that the information you sent is frivolous and your position has no basis in law. Claims such as yours have been considered and repeatedly rejected without merit by the federal courts - including the United States Supreme Court. Therefore, we will not respond to future correspondence concerning these issues. Our lack of response to further correspondence does not in any way convey agreement or acceptance of the arguments advanced. If you intend to persist in making such arguments, we encourage you to seek advice from a reputable tax practitioner or attorney.

This is to inform you of the potential consequences of the position you have taken and to offer you an opportunity to correct your position within 30 days of the date of this letter.

Also be advised that people who violate the tax laws may be subject to federal criminal prosecution and imprisonment. Information about the IRS's criminal enforcement program is available on the internet at www.irs.gov. Once there, enter the IRS Keyword "Criminal".

There are some people who encourage others to violate the nation's tax laws by arguing that there is no legal requirement for them to file income tax returns or pay income taxes. These people base their arguments on legal statements taken out of context and on frivolous arguments that have been repeatedly rejected by federal courts. People who rely on this kind of information can ultimately pay more in taxes, interest and penalties than they would have paid simply by filing correct tax returns.

IRS Publication 1105, Why do I Have to Pay Taxes?, can be obtained from our internet website www.irs.gov/pub/irs-soi/021205105.pdf. Dear Taxpayer(s):

This is in reply to your Tax Return dated Aug 30, 2006.

We have determined that the information you sent is frivolous and your position has no basis in law. Claims such as yours have been considered and repeatedly rejected as without merit by the federal courts - including the United States Supreme Court. Therefore, we will not respond to future correspondence concerning these issues. Our lack of response to further correspondence does not in any way convey agreement or acceptance of the arguments advanced. If you intend to persist in making such arguments, we encourage you to seek advice from a reputable tax practitioner or attorney.

This is to inform you of the potential consequences of the position you have taken and to offer you an opportunity to correct your position within 30 days of the date of this letter.

Also be advised that people who violate the tax laws may be subject to federal criminal prosecution and imprisonment. Information about the IRS's criminal enforcement program is available on the internet at www.irs.gov. Once there, enter the IRS keyword: Fraud.

There are some people who encourage others to violate our nation's tax laws by arguing that there is no legal requirement for them to file income tax returns or pay income taxes. These people base their arguments on legal statements taken out of context and on frivolous arguments that have been repeatedly rejected by federal courts. If you do not file a correct return within 30 days of the date of this letter, or if you file one or more other documents taking a frivolous position, we will assess the frivolous return penalty on each document filed. Once the penalty is assessed, the IRS will bill you $500 for each frivolous document filed. In addition, if we do not hear from you within 30 days, we may issue a notice of deficiency. A notice of deficiency is a legal notice to a taxpayer stating the amount of taxes and penalties owed.

This letter advises you of the legal requirements for filing and paying federal individual income tax returns and informs you of the potential consequences of the position you have taken. Please observe that the Internal Revenue Code sections listed below expressly authorize IRS employees that act on behalf of the Secretary of the Treasury to: 1.) examine taxpayer books, papers, records, or other data which may be relevant or material; 2.) issue summonses in order to gain possession of records so that determinations can be made of the tax liability or for ascertaining the correctness of any return filed by that person; and 3.) collect such liability.

General Information on filing requirements

Title 26, United States Code

- Section 6001 Notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns
- Section 6011 General requirement of return, statement, or list
- Section 6012 Persons required to make returns of income
- Section 6109 Identifying numbers
- Section 6151 Time and place for paying tax shown on returns
- Section 6301 Collection authority
- Section 6321 Lien for taxes
- Section 6331 Levy and distraint
- Section 7602 Examination of books and witnesses

INTERNAL REVENUE CODE SECTION 6702 (FRIVOLOUS INCOME TAX RETURN PROVIDES:

CIVIL PENALTY - IF -

- (1) any individual files what purports to be a return of the tax imposed by subtitle A but which -
  - (A) does not contain information on which the substantial correctness of the self- assessment may be judged, or
  - (B) contains information that on its face indicates that the self- assessment is substantially incorrect; and
- (2) the conduct referred to in paragraph (1) is due to -
  - (A) a position which is frivolous, or
  - (B) a desire (which appears on the purported return) to delay or impede the administration of Federal income tax law, then such individuals shall pay a penalty of $500.00

PENALTY IN ADDITION TO OTHER PENALTIES - The penalty imposed by subsection (a) shall be in addition to any other penalty provided by law.

Revenue procedure 68 12, 1968-1 C.B. 763 does not allow appeals procedures in cases of failure or refusal to comply with tax laws because of moral, religious, political, constitutional, conscientious or similar grounds. The Internal Revenue Service does not have the authority to consider such grounds in administering the Federal income tax laws. If you request an appeal, a hearing, or a meeting to disagree with any examination action based solely upon one of these arguments, you will not be given consideration.

We cannot accept the Form 1040 we received from you for the tax year 2005. We find it does not contain the information the law requires you to give, and does not comply with certain Internal Revenue Code Requirements.

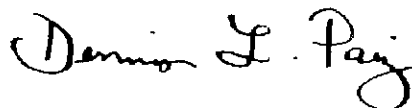

If you send us a correct return(s), we will disregard the previous document(s) filed and not assess the frivolous return penalty. Income tax forms and instructions may be obtained by calling 1-800-829-3676 or at <http://www.irs.gov/>. In addition, if we do not hear from you within 30 days from the date of this letter, we may issue a notice of deficiency, if applicable; or, refer your case for appropriate enforcement action.

Please attach this letter to your response and mail it to the address shown above. The copy of this letter is for your records.

If you have any questions, please write to us at the address shown at the top of the first page of this letter. Or, you may call us toll free at 1-866-899-9083 between the hours of 7:00 am and 7:00 pm. Whenever you write, please include this letter and, in the spaces below, give us your telephone number with the hours we can reach you. #### Privacy Act Statement

Under the Privacy Act of 1974, we must tell you that our legal right to ask for information is Internal Revenue Code sections 6001, 6011, 6012 (a) and their regulations. They say that you must furnish us with records or statements for any tax for which you are liable, including the withholding of taxes by your employer.

We ask for information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States, and you are required to give us this information. We may give the information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, other federal agencies, states, cities, and The District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws.

If you don't provide this information, or provide fraudulent information, the law provides that you may be charged penalties and, in certain cases, you may be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments shown on the tax return. This could make your tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

by James Thomas McBride
52-0781

HR-192

- 7) The United States filed a false and fraudulent claim against JAMES T. MCBRIDE in Case No. CR-02-060 for their failure to;
  - a) exhaust their administrative remedies prior to placing this matter before a tax-payer supported court'
  - b) bond their claim'
  - c) provide documentary evidence of the pre-existing debt upon which this matter was predicated'
  - d) provide a sum certain for their claim'
  - e) accept the voluntarily tentered personal exemption for the set-off and satisfaction of the debt,
- 8) The U.S. Bankruptcy Court has a mandatory obligation to administrate all claims presented to them under the National Bankruptcy, to protect the integrity of the bankruptcy system, to protect the private rights of the American people and , when faced with evidence of a fraudulent claim against a public vessel of the United States and/or by the United States, to take action to remedy said fraudulent claim.

ALLEGATIONS

- 1) The above listed tort feasors/lien debtors are committing an ongoing tort against the private and public interests of James Thomas McBride.
- 2) The above listed tort feasors/lien debtors have unlawfully imprisoned and submitted to peonage and involuntary servitude the biological property of James Thomas McBride.
- 3) The above listed tort feasors/lien debtors have written fraudulent bonds on the private exemption of James Thomas McBride through the account JAMES T. MCBRIDE 296520781
- 4) James Thomas McBride is the sole owner of any equity in JAMES T. MCBRIDE 296520781, and has not given permission for any or all of the above listed tort feasors/lien debtors to access JAMES T. MCBRIDE 296520781, with the exception of STEVEN S. NOLDER who was appointed as fiduciary for said public vessel and instructed to settle the account, which to date has not been done.

PROOF OF ALLEGATIONS

The proof of the allegations are contained in the clerk's file in Case No. CR-02-060, in the court records and transcripts and admitted to and proclaimed by the tort feasors/lien debtors by their tacit proclamation when they had a duty to speak.

LEDGER AND TRUE BILL

The ledgering for the damges that have resulted by the unlawfull acts of the above listed tort feasors/lien debtors is from the example of Trevanza vs. City of Tampa wherein the court awarded $65, 217.39 per hour for each and every hour of illegal arrest and incarceration. James Thomas McBride has suffered one thousand five hundred days of unlawful incarceration to date.

LEDGERING: Accounting and True Bill per TREVANT v. CITY OF TAMPA 7841 f.2nd 336 (1984)

$65,217.39 per hour X 3 (punitive damages =	$	195,652.17
$195,652.17 per hour X 24 hours per day =	$	4,695,652.08
$4,695,652.08 per day x 1500 =		$7,043,468,120.00

Demand is now made for the sum certain of seven billion forty three million four hundred sixty eight thousand one hundred twenty DOLLARS and 00 CENTS, ($7, 043,468,120.00) in functional currency of the United States upon the lien debtors individually and severally.

SURETY

The surety for the Ledger and True Bill are the public hazard bonds of the above listed lien debtors, including BAR number, BAR insurance or bonds, bonds held by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, bonds by Risk management, bonds by the Dept. of Justice, etc.

If the public hazard bonds of the above listed lien debtors are insufficient collectively to meet the demands of the True Bill, then the private property, proceeds, fixtures, insurance policies, stocks, bonds, retirement funds and the like are attached, excluding wedding rings and personal pictures.

VERIFICATION

I, James Thomas McBride, being of age and competent to testify, and upon my own unlimited commercial liability, do state that I have read the above NOTICE OF DISTRESS and do know the contents to be true, correct, complete and not mis-leading, the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and do believe that the above described acts by the tort feasers/lien debtors have been committed with intent and knowledge contrary to law.

Dated and signed this 26th day of July, 2006.

2nd Request

Gentlemen,

Please prepare and file Federal Tax Form 1099 OID (Original Discount Issue) to cover the eligible issues (products of statutes) in Case No.(s) 02-CR-060 and 92-CR-91, U.S.A vs JAMES T. MCBRIDE. The eligible issues include, but are not limited to, Appearance Bonds, Bid Bonds, Performance Bonds, Payment Bonds, penal Bonds and Miller Act Bonds (SF 273, SF 274, SF 275). The 1099 OID identifies the Respondent who used funds from the source to create products from which the eligible issues were derived. The filing of the 1099 OID is mandatory upon my request, to enable the return of the tax charge to the source for settlement and closure in the exchange, Treasury Direct Account Number 296-52-0781. After filing, please forward a copy to me at the address below and return all of the corresponding property to my possession. Your failure to immediately prepare and file the requested 1099 OID shall constitute your willful failure to file for income tax.

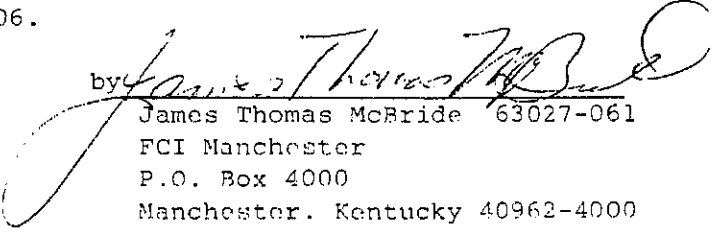

In the event that you should choose to dishonor this request, your dishonor shall make you a participant in an international contract and your name will appear in the tax report as a recipient of the payor who is identified in the eligible issues.

You have knowlege/access to the value and other information to file the federal tax form, making you the holder-in-due-course of the eligible issues, a tax liability until you make settlement by making the return to the source.

If you refuse to provide the information and file the 1099OID then I shall designate this information as having been 'REFUSED' on the Federal tax form 1099OID. The PAYOR shall be listed as being the originater of the eligible issues, the Payor Tax I.D. No. as being 'REFUSED', the Recipient as being YOU, Recipient Tax I.D. No. as being 'REFUSED', your address, telephone number and B.A.R. No. and the values of the eligible issues as being my best guess estimate.

In light of your extensive history of dishonor in this matter and in accord with the Truth-In-Lending Act, you have seventy-two (72) hours to prepare and file the requested 1099 OID and forward a copy to me at the address below.

Joseph M. Scott
c/o U.S. Bankruptcy Court
P.O. Box 1111
Lexington, Kentucky

Joseph M. Scott,

Case number CR-02-060 , CR-92-91 and the Notice of Distress which have been filed with this court are pre-paid original issues, having been created from the credit of James Thomas McBride and therefore constitute personal income and the private property of James Thomas McBride.

Your denial of remedy, in this matter, constitutes your withholding of personal income. I request that you immediately prepare and file federal tax form 10999 IOD for the eligible issues to enable the return of the tax to source for settlement and closure in the account, in exchange, Treasury Direct Account No. 296520781.

The filing of the 1099 IOD is mandatory upon my request. Your refusal/failure to immediately prepare and file the requested forms shall constitute your willful failure to file for income tax.

In the event that you should choose to dishonor this request, your dishonor shall make you a participant in an international contract and your name will appear in the tax report as a recipient of the payer who is identified in the eligible issues.

You have knowlege/access to the value and other information to file the federal tax form, making you holder-in-due-course of the eligible issue, a tax liability until you make the settlement by making the return to source.

If you refuse to provide the information and file the 1099 IOD, then I shall designate this information as having been "REFUSED" on the federal tax form 1099OID, The payer shall be listed as being the originater of the eligible issue(s), the Payer Tax I.D. No. as being "REFUSED", the Recipient as being you, the Recipient Tax I.D. No. as being "REFUSED", your address and telephone number and the values of the eligible issues as being my best guess estimate.

Please forward my copy of the requested 1099 OID, within seventy-two hours in accordance with the Truth In Lending Act, to the address below. Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter..

Dated and signed this 25th day of July, 2006.
